BELGIAN QUEEN SPENDS NIGHT IN ADMIRING WEST'S SCENIC CHARM.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 9.—Queen Elizabeth of the Belgians was entranced with the western scenery today after the train passed Echo, Utah, and tonight she planned to sit on the observation platform of the royal car and view nature's wonders by moonlight and searchlight. Particularly did she wish to cross the Great Salt Lake by moonlight. The special train speeded past Pulpit Rock, Devil's Slide and over the newly snow-capped Wasatch Range into Utah today and the scenery was the principal topic of the royal party.
The party is scheduled to return to San Francisco to spend October 14, but it was made known today that it will not be possible to lengthen the stay in that city because of the limited time the King can remain in the United States.

KING TAKES A TRAMP IN SNOW OF WYOMING.

TAKES A TURN AT THE THROTTLE AND IS REPLACED BY THE CROWN PRINCE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]
ON BOARD KING ALBERT'S
SPECIAL TRAIN, Oct. 9.—Snow covered the ground when daylight overtook King Albert's train east of Bitter Creek, Wyo., this morning.
He was up at dawn and took a short tramp along the tracks, wearing heavy boots, although he did not turn in until after 1 o'clock a.m.
The King climbed into the engine cab at Cheyenne at 10:15 o'clock last night and drove his train to Laramie, fifty-seven miles away.
Prince Leopold took the King's place in the cab, riding there as far as Rawlins, 118 miles away, piloting the train part of the way and not getting to bed until after 4 o'clock this morning.

ALBERT PRAISES 91ST DIVISION'S SOLDIERS.

SAYS WESTERN TROOPERS HAVE GRATITUDE OF ENTIRE BELGIAN NATION.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 9.—Albert
of Belgium, who came to Salt Lake today with his queen and their son, paid a tribute to the men of the Ninety-first Division in what was said to have been the lengthiest speech he has made since he started on his tour of the western part of the United States.
"I salute the men of the Ninety-first," he said, speaking in the Mormon Tabernacle, where the royal party stayed beyond the welcome recital. "I want the men of this famous fighting division to know they have the gratitude of the Belgian nation."
Organist J. J. McCallan played two special numbers at the request of the Queen, then another number while the royal party went to the rear of the edifice for the benefit of the famous acrobats.
King Albert's special train arrived here shortly before 5 o'clock and the party was taken in automobiles for a trip through the city and to the Mormon Tabernacle. There were few formalities beyond the welcome
by Gov. Bamberg and Mayor Ferry. The special train then returned to Ogden, where it will remain until the next scheduled stop at Reno, Nev., about 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

for three weeks.

D'ANNUNZIO'S CHANGE OF NAMES UP AGAIN.

PARIS BELIEVES SOLDIER-POET'S REAL MONIKER IS PLAIN BRONSTEIN.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, Oct. 9.—Reports published in Paris that D'Annunzio had demanded 50,000,000 lire to quit Fiume
have given an impetus to the revival of the story that D'Annunzio's real name is Bronstein.

There is evidence that D'Annunzio was also known by the name of Ragapetta earlier in his literary career. A pamphlet published at Fiume in 1915 by Prof. Pini, printed by the Stabiliment Martistico Tipografico, entitled "Miriam" addresses
him as Ragapetta.

On the cover of this pamphlet
there is perhaps a prophetic cartoon
of the poet in the role of a soldier, representing the King of Italy standing by a bag of money and saying to D'Annunzio, "Dear D'Annunzio: In this war, you are a poet."

"Get to the front and give courage to those who fight," D'Annunzio replies, with outstretched hand: "All right, but what will you pay?"

ENGLISH CABINET IS BUSY ON IRISH ISSUE.

[BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Irish question occupied the attention of the Cabinet at its meeting this forenoon, over which Premier Lloyd George presided, and in which Sir
Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, was summoned to take part.

Before the meeting it was announced that the Cabinet committee appointed to find a solution of the Irish problem would hold a session
during the day. This was a session would be followed by frequent sessions, in order that its work might be completed before the conclusion of the peace treaty with Turkey, as otherwise the existing home rule act,
suspended for the course of the war,
would then come into force.

TOOK CHEMIST'S DAMES.

Afterward with the American Thirty-second Division, Mangin took Chemin des Dames in a flanking movement.

Mangin was in command of the Franco-American army which would have attacked November 13
last north of Lunerville if the Germans had not signed the armistice.
Mangin has many friends among the French, including Pershing, Bullard and Bliss, and is regarded by many as the best Allied general of the war produced.

AMERICANS REGRET MANGIN'S REMOVAL.

RELIEF OF FRENCH COMMANDER ON RHINE MAY BE DUE TO POLITICS.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, Oct. 9.—The relief of Gen.
Mangin as commander of the French forces on the Rhine caused considerable comment in the Paris press
and among American army officers
still in France.

The report is current that Miller,
the former French generalissimo, is behind the ousting of Mangin, but efforts are being made to show that the French command was replaced because of the American peace commissioner's objection because Gen.
Mangin favored a Rhenish republic.
Although Americans on the Rhine
did not mix up in adding the dismissal of Mangin, the French public, there was no trouble with Mangin, and no pressure was exerted on the French by the American peace commission for Mangin's removal.

GOVERNOR IS ASKED FOR FORCE TO END OAKLAND STRIKE RIOTS.

While Manager of Traction System Avoids Use of Word "Troops," His Appeal, Telling of Mob Violence, is Obviously Calling for Armed Intervention.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9.—General Manager Alberger of the Key Route system, Oakland, whose platform employees are on strike, has asked Gov. Stephens to "furnish whatever force may be necessary to establish order in the city of Oakland that the mob violence prevailing here may be suppressed."

Peace officers of Alameda county "with present forces are wholly unable to cope with riotous conduct and mob violence," a telegram from Alberger to the Governor's office said.

Mr. Alberger said he had not asked the Governor to send troops.

RETURN OF INFLUENZA EPIDEMIC IMPROBABLE.

STATE HEALTH OFFICIAL SAYS CALIFORNIA NEED NOT FEAR RECURRENCE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9.—A return of the influenza epidemic
which swept the Pacific Coast
last winter is exceedingly improbable this winter, Guy P.
Jones, assistant secretary of the State Board of Health, announced here today after completing a thorough investigation of conditions throughout the State.

Twenty-four cases of the dreaded disease were reported in California last week in comparison with fifty-two of the week previous. "The disease
has spent itself," said Jones,
"and we have little to fear from
it during the coming year, according to present indications."

The health officer asserted that during the period which corresponded with last week a year ago thousands of cases of the "flu" were reported to his office as a forerunner of the disease wave which brought death to many homes.

HOUDINI'S MAGIC IS POWERLESS THIS TIME.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Harry Houdini, who in vaudeville as the "handcuff king" makes his way mysteriously through chilled steel safe deposit vaults
without the slightest trouble,
is up against it when it comes to extracting real money from a concern which he alleges owes it to him.

He brought suit today in the Supreme Court against the Octagon Film Corporation for $40,000, which, he alleges, is his share of the profits of a new serial that was sent over the country in the cinema Houdini, who lives here where not on the road, admits that he was paid $1000 a week for eight weeks while the mystery pictures were being shown. For one picture he walks right through a locked steel vault
without the slightest trouble.
The court apparently has picked up a loose million or two, but when it came to settling $40,000 in real cash he was refused, and he is now upon the strong arm of the court.

BULGARIA IS HEADED TOWARD BOLSHIEVISM.

AGRICULTURAL COMMUNISTS, HEADED BY STAMBOULINSKI, TAKE OVER GOVERNMENT.

[BY CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
PARIS, Oct. 8.—The latest dispatches received in Paris indicate that Bulgaria is heading for the direction of Bolshevism. This is supported by the reports that the change in the Bulgarian government was forced to resign and will be succeeded by a new government dominated by the agrarian communists and headed by Stamboulinski, a notorious agrarian leader of marked socialist and pro-soviet tendencies.

The overthrow of the Theodoroff
government will not be without effect on the peace treaty. It is understood that the Bulgarian government will be changed completely and new plenipotentiaries will be sent to the peace conference.

The Bulgarian government's twenty-eight days of grace which it must return the treaty to Paris expires October 14.

The change in the Bulgarian government was brought about, it is believed, chiefly to influence Soviet opinion among the Allies in favor of Bulgaria and implies an appeal to be left off easily.

WORKER'S LIBERTY RIGHT

Industrial Conference is Asked to Approve the Underlying Purpose of the Open Shop.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—John D. Rockefeller, Jr., a representative of the steel industry, proposed in a resolution today that the national industrial conference, which is to meet in New York City tomorrow, should approve the principle of representation in industry. The resolution, which is being circulated by the American Federation of Labor, states that the employees shall have an effective voice in determining the terms of employment and their working and living conditions.

The resolution also calls for the adoption of a motion picture of the steel industry, a representative of the public, a committee of three members of each group—capital, labor and the public—to investigate the cost of living. The committee would be authorized to make a study of the cost of living in the steel industry and to report on the same to the conference.

The resolution also calls for the adoption of a motion picture of the steel industry, a representative of the public, a committee of three members of each group—capital, labor and the public—to investigate the cost of living. The committee would be authorized to make a study of the cost of living in the steel industry and to report on the same to the conference.

ENGLAND WANTS
UNION YOKED OFF

Demand Protection from a Repetition of Strike.

Permanent Industrial Council may be the Result.

Tories Join in Asking for Resignation of Geddes.

BY JOHN R. STEELE.

(BY CABLE-ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, Oct. 9.—English newspapers and public men now are busy taking stock after the railroad strike. One fact that emerges from the discussion is that the public is determined that some method must be worked out to prevent the life of the country from being threatened in the future by a union-labor disturbance.

On the labor side it is suggested that the committee of fourteen representative leaders of all trades whose intervention brought about the settlement be made a permanent body and empowered to deal with the government in all union-labor disputes in the future.

On the government side it is suggested that a permanent industrial council be set up to deal with union-labor troubles.

The two schemes are not incompatible and the probability is that some plan combining both will be adopted.

WANT GEDDES' SCALP.

The demand for the resignation of Sir Eric Geddes as transport minister still is growing and is finding support even among the Tories. The London Daily Express attacks him this morning on the score of lack of tact.

"The first conclusion would appear to be that though business men in high places of the government will recognize the need for a more efficient industrial department, they should be recognized they require political training before they can handle industrial disputes as employers, but as ministers of the crown," it says. "It is not expected that the cabinet will be reorganized, but it is suggested that a new minister should be appointed to the post of transport minister."

When a minister who is recognized as a great industrial expert is in the house of his friend, it is fair to assume that his tenure of office will not be long.

WANT MINES NATIONALIZED.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

LONDON, Oct. 9.—A deputation of British miners will call on President Lloyd George tomorrow to demand nationalization of mines.

This step will be taken in accordance with a resolution adopted at the recent trade union congress at Glasgow, which pledged the congress to co-operate with the miners' executive in making a demand on the government to accept the majority report submitted by the coal commission, headed by Sir John Sankey.

JUST as you turn to your wife to organize your home, so she turns to you to conserve capital and make it productive.

Most women, during their husband's or father's lifetime, give little or no thought to the management of capital. Then suddenly they find themselves with capital on their hands.

Consider how much better it would be if you would establish a trust by your will, administered by a competent Trustee.

—and how beneficially such a trust would operate if this strong bank were named as Trustee, and the lifelong training of its officers were used to invest and manage your capital.

Our Trust Officers will be glad to discuss this matter with you confidentially and without charge.

Haase, Socialist Leader, is Wounded Before Speech.

Russian Bolsheviks Perpetrate Rare Hoax on Germans.

Agent Poses as Representing New York Banking Firm.

(BY CABLE AND ASSOCIATED PRESS.)

BERLIN, Wednesday, Oct. 9.—Hugo Haase, leader of the Independent Socialists, was shot today, only a quarter of an hour before he was to make a sensational disclosure to the National Assembly in connection with the government's Baltic policies and the tolerant attitude of Berlin toward the "West Russian anti-Bolshevik government."

The establishment of which was the result of a house perpetration by an individual posing as the representative of a New York banking house.

This fact gave currency to a rumor that the attempt against Haase's life had a political origin, but a cross-examination of Voss, his assailant, indicated that he was actuated by motives of personal revenge.

The surgeons pronounce Haase's wounds not serious.

BOLSHIEVSKI PLAY HOAX.

A group of anti-Bolshevik Russians who had organized a government here to take possession of the Russian territories between the frontiers of Poland, Petrograd and Moscow, whenever the fortunes of war would place them in a position to do so, has been hoaxed by an individual posing as the accredited representative of a New York banking house.

The disclosure of the hoax in the Russian house agreed to advance to the Russians $10,000,000 marks in return for raw products, commercial concessions, timber lands and mineral rights in various sections of Russia.

"The American agent," calling himself Mr. Moechel, now appears to have been a Bolshevik agent.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—The Canadian Reciprocity Act which threw both Canada and the United States into a turmoil in 1911 was repealed today by the House without a dissenting vote and without a roll call.

While the act has been a law for this country during the past nine years the treaty proposed by President Taft was not accepted by Canada and never became a law in that country.

Its repeal was brought about by pressure from the border States and from the grain belt. They had never favored the treaty in the first instance because it threatened competition with free Canadian agricultural products, but were whipped into line by sentiment that Mr. Taft had created. Although Canada had rejected the treaty, or its reciprocal aims for breaking down tariff barriers, it was felt by these Congressmen that

AMERICA CALLS JAPAN TO TIME.

Repeated Protests Bring Strained Relations.

Siberian Expedition Cause of Much Friction.

Cabinet Officers are Avoiding Jingo Publicity.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Despite all the oratory being expended from time to time by American and Japanese officials to demonstrate the fraternity of the United States and Japan, it is beginning to be recognized in Washington that the relations of the two governments are not all that could be desired.

Wherever Americans and Japanese have been thrown together in Siberia and China there has been increasing friction between the two races, as a result of which the United States has accumulated an impressive budget of grievances against the Tokyo government.

The administration realizes the dangers of the situation and is repeatedly protesting to Tokyo and demanding satisfaction for affronts to the United States.

LANSING IS SILENT.

Secretary of State Lansing would neither deny nor affirm today the authenticity of the cable report from Tokyo that the United States had protested against the failure of the Japanese to afford protection to American engineers in the Japanese zone of the Siberian railroad and had threatened to withdraw American troops from Siberia. Secretary of War Baker says the situation in Siberia is constantly changing in Siberia and that he is receiving detailed reports from Gen. Graves, who is in command of the American troops there, but he declined to indicate the character of the general's reports.

There was friction from the start between the American and Japanese governments over the Siberian expedition. Tokyo accused Washington of having dispatched more than 7500 men agreed upon and made this the pretext for marching an army of more than 40,000 Japanese into Siberia. American protests eventually caused the withdrawal of a large part of the Japanese forces from the interior to the sea coast. There was a clash between Gen.

MARTIN PLANE AT MEDFORD.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)

MEDFORD (Or.) Oct. 9.—The Martin bombing plane, which is of its around-the-world tour of the country, arrived at Medford at 1:10 o'clock and landed at the flying field south of the city. After lunching and replenishing supplies, the machine, with its crew of five, departed south at 2 p.m.

Graves and the Japanese when the latter sought to interfere with its efforts to recapture the American soldier flogged by the Russians. Numerous other instances of trouble between Japanese and American troops are recorded in War Department reports. American soldiers in Siberia complain pretty generally of the hostility of the Japanese.

The Tien-tsin incident, involving gross outrages by Japanese upon American soldiers and officials, caused the United States to demand apologies of Tokyo and reparation. Japan sought to close the incident by causing local Japanese officials in China to express regrets to the American officials. This did not satisfy Washington, however, and an animated diplomatic correspondence has ensued over the American demands for formal and complete satisfaction to date Japan has not apologized.

Shantung has proved another thorn. President Wilson, endeavoring to restore opposition to the peace treaty in the Senate, has been seeking to induce Tokyo to fix a date for the restoration of Shantung to China. Japan has not taken kindly to the suggestion.

PACIFIC COAST QUESTION.

The "peaceful penetration" of the Pacific Coast States by the Japanese is again becoming a burning question in that section and charges have been heard frequently in Congress of late that Tokyo is violating the "gentlemen's agreement" to prevent Japanese laborers from emigrating to the United States.

It was in the midst of these controversies that the administration dispatched Admiral Rodman to the Pacific with an American fleet and published a letter to the admiral from which Japan was able to glean the pointed idea that the United States intends to maintain in those waters naval forces superior to those of the Japanese.

This hint, however, does not appear to have impressed Japan sufficiently to yield to the various demands of the United States. Perhaps that is because Rodman's fleet is not actually superior to the Japanese in strength.

REPATRIATION TANGLE.

Wife of Mumm, Champagne King, Would Become American.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Mrs. Frances Scoville Mumm, daughter of a Seneca (Kan.) banker, who married Walter Mumm, a German subject and member of the famous wine family of France, appeared today before the House Committee on Immigration to urge adoption of the bill which would give her repatriation. The Senate already has passed the bill.

Mrs. Mumm said she was in haste for Congress to act, explaining that she had obtained last June a legal separation from Walter Mumm, whom she described as a "man without a country." She married Mumm in England in 1913 and lived with him in France until 1918.

Mumm had lived most of his life in France, although his mother made her home in Germany. At the outbreak of the war France seized the Mumm property in France and threatened Walter Mumm with internment, he having failed to take out naturalization papers in France. Mumm went to Germany and was pressed into service by the German authorities.

American citizenship is desired by Mrs. Mumm, she explained, in order that she might make her claim for her interests in the Mumm properties in France. This she cannot do under the French laws because she is recognized as the wife of a German subject, and the American law of 1907 provides that any American woman marrying a foreigner shall take the citizenship of her husband.

She disclaimed any thought of collusion in seeking American citizenship in order to obtain a portion of the Mumm properties and save them for Walter Mumm, and declared her separation from her husband was final and that she intended making the United States her permanent home.

SUES COLUMBIA'S HEAD.

Professor, Accused of Disloyalty, Claims He Was Slandered.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

NEW YORK, Oct. 9.—Prof. J. McKean Cattell brought suit in the Supreme Court today against Nicholas Murray Butler, president and four other trustees of Columbia University for $11,500 damages.

He had for twenty-six years been professor of psychology at the university when he was dismissed for alleged disloyalty to the government. His son, Owen, ran away and was captured in New Orleans after having been arrested on a charge of trying to evade the Selective Service Act. The professor's suit is based on his discharge.

The others named in the suit were George Linschbach, former presiding justice of the Appellate division of the Supreme Court; John P. Pine, Francis S. Bane and Stephen S. Baker. They constituted a committee which was appointed by the main body of the trustees to investigate the charges against Prof. Cattell.

It was charged that he had at various times made remarks in the classroom that were calculated to breed a spirit of pacifism, if not disloyalty, toward the United States. After an investigation by the committee, Prof. Cattell was suspended October 1, 1917, and although he made repeated efforts to be reinstated he was never taken back.

DOMINICANS ASK THAT AMERICANS WITHDRAW

OBJECTION IS MADE TO FURTHER MAINTENANCE OF OCCUPATION FORCE.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

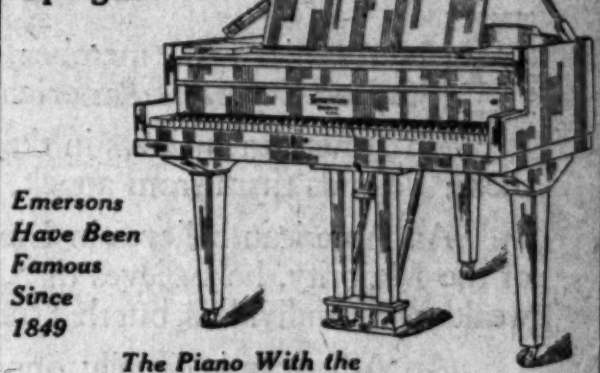

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Dr. Francisco Henriquez y Carvajal, who was President of the Dominican republic in 1918, preceding the occupation by the American military forces, and who has come here with several other members of a commission to ask that the forces be now withdrawn, declared today there has been much apprehension in some quarters over the situation. The declaration has been made, he said, that "there is some sort of a treaty giving the United States a protectorate over the Dominican republic."

"There is no such treaty," said Dr. Carvajal. "Furthermore, I would not favor any treaty similar to that with Cuba, generally called the Platt amendment. The financial convention of 1907, between the United States and Santo Domingo, concerns only the collection of revenue for the payment of the public debt, which is supervised by both American and Dominican officials."

Who Is an American?

AN American is a member of the greatest union of the world, The United States of America.

An American believes in the institutions of our government; supports them; defends them from attack, either from without or within.

An American believes in Liberty and Equality; he believes in the rule of the Majority, he believes that taxes should be assessed on a basis of the wealth of the individual, but that there should be no distinction at the ballot box.

An American is equally opposed to the German principle of measuring a man's vote by the amount of taxes he pays; and to the Bolshevik system of granting the ballot only to those who have agreed beforehand to support a single party.

An American is a defender of American institutions. He believes in the government of which he is a part and will oppose every movement which would supplant the government of the constitution by a government of violence.

One Union; One Flag

An American doesn't strike for what he wants or look for it with a torch; he works for it; and he generally gets it.

An American is a champion of law and order. He will sacrifice his life, if need be, for his country. He will not close our ports to European immigrants; but he will insist on turning back any whom the government considers unfit; he will assist in deporting them if they are found plotting against our government or against American institutions after they have landed.

An American believes that his country is a workshop; but not an almshouse; that it is the land of law and order, but not of violence; he insists that all classes must be equal before the law.

An American believes in deporting foreign-born Bolsheviks and anarchists. He knows that they are no more to be converted than rattlesnakes.

An American opposes every union that seeks to set itself above the constitution. He does not believe in any "One Big Union" idea that would substitute a class government for that guaranteed by the constitution.

Justice, Not Violence

An American is a firm believer in law and order. He is unalterably

Ever Hear of This Union?

Advertisement Number One.

I would no more identify myself with the Socialist party in the United States than with the Russian Bolshevik.—Henry de Man, prominent Belgian labor leader and internationalist.

We join ourselves to no party that does not carry the flag and keep step to the music of the Union.—Choate.

The American people never ran away from a difficult question or from a well-defined duty.—McKinley.

Those who seek to destroy American institutions by means of violence will themselves be destroyed.—Woodrow Wilson.

Socialism, as it is understood by the thinkers of Europe, is simply a government of the majority, without any governing class. It does not mean that the government should either own or interfere with the management of industries. Socialism in Europe is equivalent to Democracy in America.—Emile Segur.

What If Washington Had Struck?

opposed to sabotage and violence in industrial disputes. He utterly repudiates the I.W.W. theory, "Better a traitor to one's country than to one's class."

An American believes all men are equal so long as they obey the law of the country. He will make no legal distinction between those who belong to trades unions and those who prefer to market their labor independently.

An American believes in a square deal for all, whether a man is learned or illiterate, millionaire or beggar, union or non-union, black or white.

An American doesn't honor a man for his wealth, only when he has applied it to some useful purpose. He gives the highest positions alone to those who have earned them. It is as easy for the camel to pass through the eye of a needle as for one born to great wealth to become a Governor of a State, a United States Senator or President of the Republic.

Liberty and Equality

An American believes in the equality of opportunity, in human rights, but he does not believe in a government of violence. He respects the law of the land and insists that they shall be enforced without fear or favor. He believes in the punishment of criminals, in a rigid enforcement of the law.

An American is the man pre-eminent of the whole world who believes in honest labor. He knows wealth is the product of labor and is proud to earn what he accumulates. He scorns the idler, whether in tweeds or in jeans. He conserves his labor, because he knows its worth. He never wastes it in useless strikes and voluntary idleness.

An American shuns no honest employment. He permits no man to dictate to him where he shall work and where he shall not work. He regards agitators as slackers and treats them as such.

An American will give the last bit of his blood and treasure before he will see the red flag run up in this country and the grand old Stars and Stripes hauled down.

An American is a worker, a believer in Free Government, an enemy of radical agitation, sabotage and violence.

And the good God must love the real Americans in this country because he has made so many of them.

CARRANZA KEEPS SHARP NOTE IS CLEAR OF FIGHT SENT TO TOKIO.

First Chief Afraid to Tamper in Factional War.

Nieto and Martinez Expect to Rush Into Battle.

Gubernatorial Row in San Luis Potosi Bitter.

BY W. D. HORNADAY.
(SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE.)
MONTEREY (Mex.) Oct. 9.—
For some unexplained reason, President Carranza did not stop off at San Luis Potosi on his recent trip to the northern part of the republic.
It was authoritatively announced
before he departed from the City of Mexico that he would take occasion on his northward journey to hold a conference with the leaders of the opposing political factions at San Luis Potosi, with the view of bringing about a settlement of their differences. He did not do this, and the situation in the city and State of San Luis Potosi is said to be very acute, with the prospect of a strong armed uprising by the followers of Rafael Nieto, who is alleged to have been the governor, and who claims that an effort has been made to deprive him of the office by the intervention of the Carranza authorities.

Nieto is well known in United States government circles, as he was the special representative of President Carranza at Washington
for some time, and up to only a few months ago. He returned to San Luis Potosi and announced himself for Governor. The opposing candidate was Sefarino Martinez, who received the support of Carranza.
It is asserted by disinterested men that the election, which was held in early part of September, was a farce, but on the face of the returns Nieto received a majority of the votes cast. Candidates for the Legislature on his ticket were also elected, it is stated.

MARTINEZ HOLDS PALACE.
All this seems to have made little difference with Martinez and his followers. Backed by the Carranza authorities, including the government troops, the Martinez faction was declared in power in the State,
so far as filing the offices was concerned. Nieto called his Legislature together and that body by unanimous vote declared that all the votes which were cast for Martinez
for Governor were illegal and void.
That action did not phase the Martinez crowd, however, as they are in possession of the State palace.
Both sets of officials are issuing decrees, and are levying and exacting business without regard to the other.
The Nieto laws and decrees are observed in some places and ignored in others. The same is true as to the official acts of the Martinez faction. The bitterness of feeling between the two factions is increasing.

WHOLESALE MASSACRE.
Arrivals here from the interior
part of the State of Durango report that more than 100 passengers
on a train near Canitas, that State,
were recently murdered by Carron.
Luis Carranza had been passing along in that section for some time.
Carranza, in his attack upon the men, women and children, seemed to have no scruples. He shot them in cold blood, and in some instances put the women to death. By orders of Carranza the bandits obtained oil from the engine of the train, poured it over the seats of the passengers, and set it on fire.
The flames quickly consumed the train, turning the bodies of the killed and wounded.

According to an official statement
of Pastor Roux, Secretary of Agriculture of the Mexican government, no train was extended to the any particular nationality in the matter of colonizing lands in this country or in extending industrial enterprises. This statement was called forth by the recent published announcement that the Mexican government had granted favorable privileges for the establishment of an agricultural colony of 50,000 persons in this country. Mr.
Roux said:

"Although the government has the intention later on to encourage immigration, it is not to be derived to be derived from foreign capital.
It does not consider the present an opportune time for that object, because no law has yet been passed regulating the agrarian question. No immigrants, German or Americans, or any other nationality, will receive any aid from the government pending the enactment of laws in regard thereto by Congress. On for all regarding this matter, it should be understood that the government is disposed to open its arms to the people of all the countries in the world who desire to come here, solely with the proviso that they shall agree to abide by the laws of the country." In conclusion, he declared that it was not true that a large German firm, nor any other foreign concern, had acquired a single foot of land in the republic for colonization purposes.

WARD OFF ATTACKS.
An organization which calls itself Socialists has been formed in the smaller towns of the State of Chihuahua, for the purpose of warding off attacks that may be made upon their respective municipalities by Villis or other bandits. The organization extends to the several Mormon colonies in the State and many of the American residents of these towns belong to it. In this connection, it is announced that many of the colonists have returned to their former homes, now that danger of an immediate attack by Villistas seems to have passed. The Mexico Northwestern Railroad, which traverses the section where the Mormon colonies are situated, is being repaired. An extension of the line from Toluca to Rincon, fifteen miles, is being constructed. When this extension is finished the western part of the State of Chihuahua shows a marked increase as a result of the freedom of that region from banditry during the last several years.

Mrs. J. J. A. Van Kaathoven says:
"In 'Broken Blossoms' Miss Gish
seems truly a frail and plaintive figure of a fairy tale." (Adver-tisment.)

Only the best fixtures
are Economical

It is poor economy to buy inferior plumbing fixtures which last but a week, a month, or a year. Fixtures that require frequent repairs are not only expensive, but also, a source of continual annoyance.

pared with Thomas Maddock's Sanitary first-cost-last-cost Plumbing Equipment and you begin to see how surprisingly economical these beautiful fixtures really are.

Many a time you've considered ripping out your old bathroom equipment and installing modern, up-to-date fixtures. It will afford us extreme pleasure to demonstrate the superior quality of Thomas Maddock's equipment, and point out reasons why you should have them installed right now.

You'll not be obligated in the least. It simply means that you have the opportunity of viewing now the equipment you will eventually have. Why delay it?

Encouraging Bolshevism

Everything that falsely encourages unrest also encourages bolshevism.

Misunderstanding of American industrial organization, and of its benefits to mankind, leads to unrest, dissatisfaction,
and radicalism.

For example, the Federal Trade Commission tells the public that the large packers had an agreed price for lard substitute (made of cotton-seed oil).

It reproduces letters taken from the files of one of the packers, showing that such agreed price existed.

But it failed to mention that the agreed price was determined at the request of
and in co-operation with the Food Administration!

Even the Department of Justice, in its unjust attempt to create prejudice against the packers, has made public these same letters, with no explanation.

How long must this kind of misrepresentation continue? In so far as it is believed, it not only breeds discontent, but results in injustice to our industry.

REMOVED HIS CORNS AT HOME

Vancouver Man Tries Simple Home Recipe for Corns With Wonderful Success

Mr. D. Morris of Vancouver, B. C., suffered from painful corns for years until he tried a simple home remedy. He states:

"I had tried various remedies since I came here, but none of them were ever so successful as Cactus Corn Compound. Go to any drug store and get a small bottle of Cactus Corn Compound. Paint your corns with it, and shortly the corn drops off—no pain, no danger or loss of time. This bottle is sufficient to remove dozens of corns. Any druggist will refund your money if you are not satisfied."

SORRY SHE DIDN'T KNOW IT SOONER

Los Angeles Woman Would Have Been Saved Much Suffering.

Was Almost a Nervous Wreck Before Taking Tanlac.

Is a Well and Happy Woman Now.

"I was almost a nervous wreck when I began taking Tanlac, but now I'm a well and happy woman and want to tell everybody I meet what Tanlac has done for me," said Mrs. M. Dares, 967 West Vernon Ave., Los Angeles, a few days ago.

"For five or six years I was in such a run-down, nervous condition I could find nothing that would do me any good, and I thought I would never see a well day again, as long as I lived," continued Mrs. Dares. "I had to force myself to eat, for I didn't want to eat a thing, and I fell off until I weighed only about a hundred pounds, the least I've weighed for twenty years, and was so weak I could hardly drag around. I got so nervous that I would lose control of myself and almost scream out at times, and sleeping at nights was out of the question for me."

"I had about lost all confidence in medicine and about a month ago a friend of mine got after me to try Tanlac, as she had tried it with wonderful results, and I consented to take it. And I'll declare, it took me by surprise. I began to feel better and stronger before no time at all, and my appetite came back at once. Now I have taken three bottles and it seems almost impossible to believe that I have been restored to health in so short a time after I had suffered so long. Tanlac is fine and I'm gaining back my lost weight right along, and I can sleep like a child and never have any trouble with my nerves at all. My only regret is that I didn't take Tanlac sooner, for all of the medicines I have taken it is beyond question the best, and I'm only too glad to make a public statement and tell how wonderfully it has helped me and done it in so short a time, too."

Tanlac is sold in Los Angeles, Pasadena and San Diego by the Owl Drug Co.—(Advertisement.)

GARY OPPOSED TO ARBITRATION

Steel Corporation's Head Wants No Parleying.

Insists Union Leaders are not Representative.

Foster will not Comment on Gompers's Latest Idea.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—The proposal made at the industrial conference at Washington by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, that the steel strike be immediately arbitrated and that the idle men go back to work at once, was negated here today with considerable interest. It has been understood here that the strikers were ready to arbitrate at any time since the industry struggle started. E. H. Gary, chairman of the board of the United States Steel Corporation, however, is said to be opposed to arbitration at this time because he contends the union leaders represent only a minority of the employees of the corporation.

FOSTER SAYS NOTHING.

The only person in authority at national strike headquarters today was William Z. Foster, secretary. He said he had no information of his own from Washington about the proposal.

A telegram received at headquarters tonight from John Fitzpatrick, chairman of the national committee, announced that the Senate investigating committee would be in Pittsburgh tomorrow. The national committee is prepared to lay before the Senators much evidence to support the claims of the strikers as to the treatment they have received from the steel companies and the police authorities in some of the towns of Western Pennsylvania.

RAID ON GARY WREDS.

CHICAGO, Oct. 9.—Federal agents today made another series of raids on the homes of radical leaders at Gary, Ind., and seized a quantity of firearms, red flags and revolutionary literature. It was announced that the drive against radical leaders who are said to be responsible for most of the rioting in this district will be continued until the last gangster who presides over a section has either been arrested or driven out. Further activity against radicals in Gary, the closing of twenty-two blind plying in Indiana Harbor and the reported return of a few hundred more strikers to the mills were the only developments yesterday in the Chicago steel strike district.

Federal troops in control at Gary were expected to remain an indefinite period and Col. W. S. Mages in command, while retaining the prohibition against outdoor mass meetings, said no interference with the strikers' indoor meetings need be expected as long as they were orderly.

Officials of the steel mills reported that strikers were returning to work in increasing numbers while union leaders insisted that the skilled workers are standing firm.

Operations at Gary, South Chicago, Indiana Harbor and Waukegan were said to have been increased today. Union leaders denied that production had been advanced.

SHOTS IN PITTSBURGH.

(BY A. P. DAY WIRE.)

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 9.—A clash between negro workers and foreign-born strikers at Donora today resulted in two men being shot and wounded and a number injured. The crowd was scattered by the State police without serious casualties.

changes causes some curious tures in buying. In the shop win-ows one sees cards on men's shoes reading "75 kronen." Ready-made pieces of clothes or women's dresses are marked "2500 kronen," a felt hat "300 kronen" and so on, while real jewelry the price cards run to the high thousands.
The result is a loss of the sense

while the rapid fluctuations of the

get a correct idea of actual costs.

The People and Their Troubles

REFLECTIONS OF A GRASS WIDOW

BY JANE DIXON.

NO. 4—MARRIAGE.

High altar of happiness—marriage altar. I feel an unholy desire to laugh when I think upon the term. The laugh is not pretty. I wonder if the girl who approaches the marriage altar with any thing except love and joyous anticipation of the duties of wifehood knows she is committing the veriest sacrilege.

We cannot cheat God.

We may cheat the world and ourselves, but when we approach the Most High with a lie on our lips and another in our hearts we are blasphemers and cheats.

To claim kinship in love is to claim kinship with God.

To throw about us a false mantle of affection is to wear a false mask before God. There are no liars in His Household.

Now we pay the price, those of us who go before the altar to participate in the sacrament of marriage and make of it a mockery. Meaningless vows. Empty promises. Worthless pledges.

DEVIL WAITS FOR TOLL.

And all the time the devil is at our elbow, watching, waiting, eager for his toll. Another traveler along his satanic majesty's bridge of tears and bitter regret.

I might go on in this strain forever—if I dared. After a while my head feels hot. There is a whirling inside my ears. My eyes begin to blur. That way lies madness.

The day after my proposal all our world knew Mary Clanton was engaged to marry Ray Williams. The little gray mouse had captured the big shiny cat. The lamb had slipped a chain around the neck of the lion. Miss Nobody had landed Prince Charming, son of King Midea. What luck!

When I told mother the poor dear sank into the nearest chair and dissolved into tears.

"Why the weeping, mummy?" I asked flippantly. "Thought your heart was set on putting this one over."

"Don't speak so lightly of serious things, child," she sniffed. "And please don't say my heart was set on it. I had nothing to say, one way or the other. Naturally, I am pleased, but the thought of losing my baby rather upsets me."

I laughed. The sound of my mirth was of the rapturous variety that sets the nerves tingling. The thought of losing me! What a joke! Mother's tears were trickles of pure relief.

The big fish had swallowed the bait, hook, line and sinker, and was now floundering helplessly in the bottom of the boat. I am sure she could have shouted with joy.

It never occurred to the dear soul to inquire if I was happy. The idea of a girl with a limousine already at her disposal and prospects of ever finding from a pearl necklace to a private yacht being anything but joyful was simply too preposterous to be entertained.

Many girls envied me. The cool note of it was in their congratulatory effusions.

Even!

Had they but known how little cause there was for such smallness.

JEWEL THAT DOES NOT FADE.

The only girl who is a legitimate subject for envy is the one who has been fortunate enough to find the man of men.

There is a flaw in the most brilliant of prowling through the shops in search of pretties, if you can not feel that peculiar little catch in the throat, that sky of a heart beat at the thought of your bridal gown, turn back. Retrace your steps. Remedy your mistake before it is too late.

DATES CHANGED.

Wedding gown. One garment in all main forever sacred on your hands of happy girlhood.

A simple blue serge, a dove-gray silk, a misty organdie, rich velvet, plain muslin, but surely a textile raincloud with the warp and woof of kindness and kisses and all the tender tones in the dye pot of the master fabrician, Cupid.

Mother finally settled on chiffon. I walked through a mass of fittings and furnishings like a person in a dream. Half the time I did not know what was being "tried," nor cared. Friends began to be a bit curious about the date of the important event. Everything was ready. The tulle gown dangled unseeingly through most of the closets of our home. Twice tentative dates had been fixed; twice I had succeeded in finding reasons why these dates were not desirable.

Ray became bothersome about it. He could not understand why I was so indefinite. In the midst of this tension, when everyone's nerves were pretty much on edge, I announced a temperamental spell all my own and informed my prospective husband I was going to visit a girl friend in a neighboring city.

"Just a couple of days," I promised. "I'm beginning to feel the wear of all this preparatory spasm. Need to be set up a bit."

For once, mother agreed. I am sure she wanted to get me out of the way for a while. I was rapidly reaching the stage where I might be expected to bolt or do something foolish.

THE DANGEROUS SEQUEL.

I went for my visit. Dangerous mood. Recklessness possessed me. I met a man, a handsome young fellow with no money and a face like a Greek god. It was the lack of money which appealed to me, I believe, even more than the Greek god. We struck up a desperate flirtation. In my highly sensitized state, I persuaded myself here was my one big love. We were together constantly. Young love ran riot. I decided to return home, break my engagement with Ray and let the heavens topple.

I was to make a three-day visit. I stayed three weeks. On my lips as I left was the kiss of my new sweetheart and the one with whom I was to be married. It was to be an elopement.

"I told her," I said, "I received from my home, was an invitation to the wedding of Mary Clanton and Ray Williams."

I could no longer fight the tide. The rapid was only a stone's throw away. I drifted gracefully on the wave of love. After all, there is always a chance one's bark may escape before it is too late.

It was a very grand affair. My marriage. The soul of me stood fast up near the choir loft and watched the travesty. Excitement died out at the first note of the first of the chorus. How I hate that music, how I always will hate it!

The curious numb feeling I had known several times of late stole over me. Merciful Mother Nature. The soul of Mary Clanton up near the organ watched the body of Mary Clanton being bound in holy wedlock. Not until the rector sealed the pledge with the final pronouncement you man and wife" did the soul of Mary Clanton return to take up its abode in a quivering, pin-pointed body.

We cannot cheat God.

In that one vivid moment when we are brought face to face with fact and the one with whom we have chosen to mate the eternal balance swings.

Have we mated with lust, flesh-pots, ambition, any of the minions of the infernal? Satan sits at the fires of hell for the singing.

A little higher than the stars. My stars were garish candles guttering on a desecrated altar.

Q: What is a shine ball, and by whom was it discovered?

A: The shine ball is thrown like a fast ball, but floats instead of curving. It was discovered by Eddie Clocote of the Chicago American League.

Q: Can you tell me how to remove tar from the ears and neck of a horse?

A: Rub lard thoroughly on the tar, then wash with hot water and soap. Repeat this treatment if necessary. Turpentine is sometimes applied in similar cases, but no concentrated acid should ever be put on the flesh of the horse.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES"

Too Much Advice. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 9.—(To the Editor of The Times.) Recently in attending a mothers' meeting one could not help becoming bewildered with the variety of subjects discussed. In fact, there were papers on almost every subject connected with motherhood, childhood, duties of parents and teachers and also housekeeping.

All sorts of advice upon these subjects was given, but with very little idea of how to become efficient in any of these things. The spirit of nervousness pervaded the atmosphere as the mothers, and in return for the child's education and bringing up at the present time.

The nervous mother is relieved when she starts her little ones off to school, often considering her duties over concerning their conduct and progress in learning. While the teacher may do her part she cannot the middle of August and took the parents shifting their responsibility upon the teacher, and in return reproaching the parent, why not unite to work for the child's benefit?

How easy to excuse ourselves by saying "we are so nervous" and of using a little self-control. A 4-year-old surprised his fond mamma as she was jerking on his coat by the remark, "You don't seem to be very patient this morning, mamma."

With the ability to control our "nerves" comes energy to do our work well and with attention and effort as well as knowledge we will be more efficient parents and teachers.

MRS. ALMA LEWIS.

Where's the Japs? LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—(To the Editor of The Times.) I have been interested in reading a few statistics from your paper in regard to the birth rate in this city. I began about the middle of August and took the consecutive lists to the last of September with the following results:

August total, 151; boys, 84; girls, 71; two pairs of twins.

September total, 467; boys, 282; girls, 205; five pairs of twins.

Among them I noticed no oriental names. Why are they not registered? I do not know that this data will interest others, but I send it to it.

MRS. JULIET H. STIVIER.

Six to One—A Fact or Two. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—(To the Editor of The Times.) "Sixteen to one" was a political war cry a quarter of a century ago. Now "six to one" seems to be the Senatorial minority's slogan. Let us look at a few facts and figures.

The covenant of the League of Nations brings to birth a trinity, an assembly of some three dozen representative voters, one for each nation (two others may debate), a council to consist of present of nine members, and a secretary. This last is the only one existing feature.

In the council (so far from being overrepresented), the British empire with a population of 430,000,000 has just the same voting power as the United States, whose population is about one-fourth of that. In the Assembly it is alleged that Britain has six votes, because it may control the vote of India, Canada, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

Let Germany by election, friction, wars the right to vote, and her associates in the civilized world for some time.

Out the Speaker. LOS ANGELES, Oct. 7.—(To the Editor of The Times.) I was thought that the speaker of the House of Representatives, Mr. Clegg, was going to be elected.

Progressive speakers and that the G.O.P. are going to New York, they have had a long and arduous journey.

Frederick Orson Johnson is the morning for a six and will probably be returned to D. C. before returning.

URGE ACTION ON COTTON.

Commerce Chamber Directors Ask Speed in Giving this City Differential.

Quick decision on Los Angeles petitions for a differential cotton rate and the designating of this city as a cotton center is urged in a letter authorized yesterday by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce and forwarded to the District Freight Traffic Committee of the United States Railroad Administration. Hearings on both these petitions have been held, and the action of the board in giving a definite ruling was inspired by the recent diversion of Oklahoma and Texas cotton from Pacific Coast outlets to the Orient, to Galveston.

TEXT OF LETTER.
"In view of the large amount of commerce affecting Southern California, involved in the petitions before your honorable body, relative to cotton transportation, the directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce would appreciate the earliest possible action on the application of Los Angeles to be made a cotton concentration point and be given a differential rate on cotton for exporting."

"We have in mind the diversion recently of approximately one-half of the total Japanese export—something over 200,000 bales, which has been going through Pacific ports, to the port of Galveston for shipment from there to the Orient. This action not only means a considerable reduction in amount of revenue derived by the Railroad Administration in handling this cotton, but eliminates the Pacific Coast altogether—the ports of which are the natural outlet to the Orient. In this connection we wish to emphasize the importance of the full differential of 41 per cent, as requested in the application, as a compromise would be totally ineffective.

"In making this appeal for prompt favorable action on the petition solely by the interest of our organization in the community welfare and in the belief that an early decision will end existing uncertainty as to future shipments, which will redound to the benefit of the railroad and the community alike."

PRAISE FOR PATRIOTS.
Appreciation of the work done by the Practical Patriots' League was expressed in the following resolution, unanimously adopted:

"Whereas, prior to the great war, R. L. Doherty and thirty associates organized the Practical Patriots' League, naval branch, Los Angeles county, for the purpose of encouraging enlistment in the naval militia by insuring patriotic young men that the financial responsibilities of their homes would be assumed while they were in the service, and that their positions would be open to them when they returned; and whereas, this league disbanded in this work more than $25,000 after being largely instrumental in preparing the Second Battalion, California Naval Militia, for active service; first of all Los Angeles organizations; therefore be it

"Resolved, by the board of directors of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce that we acknowledge the name of the community the patriotic service done by the Practical Patriots' League and commend the wise yet liberal manner in which it fulfilled its pledges to the men who volunteered from Los Angeles to defend their country's flag, and assisted the Soldiers and Sailors' Replacement Bureau in providing employment for the returning service men."

DELEGATES GATHER.
Maynard McFie, vice-president of the chamber, was named as a delegate to represent the organization at the international trade conference to be held at Atlantic City, October 22. H. W. Frank, a member of the board of directors, now in East, also will attend the conference as representative of the chamber. This will be a gathering of business men representing the Allied nations in the war, who will attempt to formulate definite plans for future commerce.

PRICES ADVANCE ON PRODUCE MARKET.

ACTIVE BUYING AND LIGHT ARRIVALS GIVE MARKET STRONGER TONE.

The local produce market was active yesterday, with a strong price trend to advance on nearly the entire price list. Light arrivals from the local producing sections and the most condition and better quality of yesterday's arrivals tended to strengthen the market. Retail and wholesale prices were out to some extent in the morning, and with active conditions in the afternoon, toward the end of the day the price of the market and with butting market, a reaction took place and the closing prices were fractionally lower than those of the opening market.

Challenges, which were very light on the local market, advanced to $1.75 and $1.75 per crate as an increase amounting to 25 cents. The market for produce was strong, with a strong demand for this product. The market for produce was strong, with a strong demand for this product. Yolo County is one of the rich agricultural counties of California. It embraces an area of 649,960 acres of level land. It is situated about sixty miles northeast of San Francisco, along the Sacramento River. The following quotation from Elwood Mead, U. S. Government Soil Expert, describes the productivity of this area "It is ideal grain, alfalfa and fruit land. You may find growing on this soil wheat, barley, corn, oats, alfalfa, all the vegetables of a temperate and sub-tropical climate, apples, figs, pears, apricots, nectarines, plums, prunes, oranges, lemons, limes, pomegranates, grapes, almonds, olives, English walnuts, berries of all kinds and melons."

Transportation facilities are excellent. The Sacramento River affords cheap and rapid transportation to all of the Bay Cities, and in addition the district is traversed by the Southern Pacific, the Sacramento Northern, and the San Francisco, Oakland & Antioch R. R. Companies.

Woodland, the county seat, has bank deposits of $7,538,559. At Davis, which is situated about ten miles south of Woodland, is the University of California Farm. Some of the other towns within the boundaries of this county are Winters, Guinda, Rumsey, Esparto, Madison and Knights Landing.

The above statements and statistics are derived from official sources, or those which we regard as reliable, or are carefully estimated. We do not guarantee, but believe them to be correct.
